COMMENTS:

Charles Wilson is requesting a waiver for failing to file his 2018 Amendment timely. Mr. Wilson stated during his 24 years in office he consistently taken pride in adhering to the policies and rules of his position, including timely filing his disclosures. He did not realize that there was a deadline to submit his amendment. Mr. Wilson stated the Amendment Notice was received while he was ill. He tested positive for Covid-19 and the lingering effects took a toll on his daily life. However, he returned the amendment as soon as he could. Due to an Eviction Moratorium, his office has been losing money, thus affecting his income. He humbly asks the Ethics Board to consider waiving his late fee.

This is Mr. Wilson's first late filing and first PFD late fee assessment.

Re: Waiver of Fees, delinquent filing of amendment

To whom it concerns:

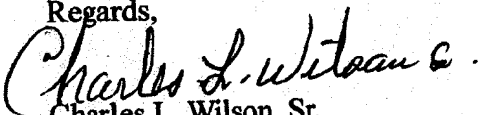

I am writing you in response to the request for payment of a $400.00 fee for the delinquent filing of an amendment to my 2018 report. During my twenty-four (24) years in office I have consistently taken pride in adhering to the policies and rules of my position, including timely filing of paperwork.

I was required to file an amendment to my 2018 report but did not realize that there was a deadline to submit it. This request was received during a time that I had become ill, only to discover that I was COVID positive. The lingering effects took a toll on my daily life. However, I returned the amendment as soon as I could. I recently received notice that a late fee has been levied against me.

Due to the eviction moratorium my office has been losing money thus affecting my income. Because of this, I humbly request a waiver of the assessed fee.

Thank you for your consideration in this urgent matter.

Regards,

Charles L. Wilson, Sr.
